Short title and commencement

44. This Act is called the National Road Traffic Amendment Act, 2012, and comes into operation on a date fixed by the President by proclamation in the Gazette.
MEMORANDUM ON THE OBJECTS OF THE NATIONAL ROAD TRAFFIC AMENDMENT BILL, 2012

1. BACKGROUND

The Bill proposes to give effect in the short term to some of the principal strategies contained in the Road Safety Strategy 2001-2005. The Bill implements the strategic interventions highlighted in the Road Safety Strategy. Furthermore, it deals with the registration of driving schools and instructors in South Africa with the aim of regulating the industry and it prohibits the operation of unregistered and ungraded driving schools. The Bill amends certain definitions and also provides some new definitions.

2. OBJECTS OF THE BILL

The Bill aims to:

- provide for the registration and licensing of motor vehicles, manufacturers, builders, body builders, importers and manufacturers of number plates;

- empower the MEC to register an applicant as a manufacturer, body builder, builder, importer and manufacturer of number plates; to empower only a provincial Department responsible for Transport or municipality to operate a driving licence testing centre;

- empower the chief executive officer of the Road Traffic Management Corporation to approve and register a driving licence testing centre;

- empower the Minister to prescribe training procedures and disqualifications of Inspectors of licences, examiners of vehicles, examiners for driving licences, traffic officers and traffic wardens appointed by an authority;
• impose a duty on drivers to be in physical possession of driving licences or proof thereof when driving a motor vehicle;

• empower the driving licence testing centres to issue a driving licence;

• prohibit the issuance of a driving licence or learner’s licence of a person who has been convicted of using an aid material in order to pass the driving licence test;

• set the date of 1 May 2003 as the date upon which the provision of section 18(6)(a) shall come into effect;

• regulate the registration and grading of applicants as driving school instructors and direct how the application and registration of driving school instructors, to regulate the driving school industry and to prohibit the operation of unregistered and ungraded driving schools and utilization of ungraded driving school instructors;

• empower the MEC to approve applications for the registration of driving schools;

• empower the Minister to prescribe regulations on how to handle applications as a driving school instructor;

• empower the MEC to suspend, cancel or deregister a driving school when suspected of contravening this Act;

• empower the CEO to declare as void, documents purporting to be driving licences;

• empower the inspectorate of the driving licence testing centres to destroy such documents;
• empower the Minister to appoint a person, authority or a body as an inspectorate of driving licence testing centre, to provide for the circumstances under which driving licences should be suspended; and to provide for matters connected therewith.

The Bill achieves this by—

(a) Amending the National Road Traffic Act, 1996 (Act No.93 of 1996), so as to insert certain definitions and to amend others;

(b) providing for the addition of traffic wardens on the application process for officers and on the minimum requirements;

(c) providing for the registration and suspension of body builders and the prohibition of such body builders unless registered;

(d) providing for application process for the provincial Department of Transport or municipality desiring to operate a driving licence testing centre;

(e) providing for the operation of a mobile testing facility by the Driving Licence Testing Centre;

(f) prohibit the willful or negligent endorsement or issuance of learner’s licence contrary to the Act;

(g) prohibit the possession and use of an aid that may assist a person in answering a test for a learner’s license and the disqualification of such applicants;
(h) provide for the requirement of a competency certificate from a registered driving school upon application for a driving licence by an applicant who desires to obtain a driving licence;

(i) amending the provisions of section 18 of the Act to determine the 1 May 2003 as the date upon which the licence contained in an identity document shall seize to be a licence;

(j) making new provision regarding the process by which driving licences are issued;

(k) providing for the manner of application for a driving school, the registration and grading of driving schools and instructors;

(l) prohibiting the use of one’s driving licence by another;

(m) providing for the Passenger Rail Agency of South Africa to display road traffic signs at any railway level crossing on any public road;

(n) deleting obsolete provisions.

- Clause 22 amends section 24 by providing that a provincial department of transport registered as a driving licence testing centre may issue a learner’s or driving licence as prescribed in section 17 and 18 respectively, in the prescribed form to a person who is in the employment of such department of transport only.

- Clause 23 amends section 25 of the principal Act by providing that if the holder of a learner’s or driving licence issued in terms of this Chapter, a repealed ordinance or any prior law, is disqualified in terms of section 15 from holding such licence, the CEO shall cancel such licence or if the holder of a licence referred to in paragraph (a) would constitute a source of danger to the public by driving a motor vehicle on a public road and an affirmation or affidavit in respect of the circumstances relating to such source of danger is submitted to the CEO, he or she may cancel or suspend such licence, further providing that if any person after having been examined and tested in terms of subsection (2) is found not to be competent to drive a motor of the class for which he or she has a licence, the CEO shall forthwith cancel the licence concerned.

- Clause 24 amends section 27 of the principal Act by proving that where the holder of licence authorizing the driving of a motor vehicle in the Republic; and on which an endorsement in terms of section 18(4) or a similar endorsement by a competent authority in a prescribed territory has been affected, is of the opinion that there are circumstances justifying the cancellation or amendment of such endorsement, he or she may apply to the MEC of the province in which he or she is permanently or ordinarily resident for the cancellation or amendment of such endorsement.

- Clause 25 amends section 28 of the principal Act by substituting the heading to that section with a new heading, further prohibiting the employment of any person as an instructor, or making use of any other person’s services as an instructor, unless that other person is registered and graded as an instructor in terms of section 28B.

- Clause 26 amends section 28B of the principal Act by adding subsections (4) and (5) after subsection (3) to provide for any person desiring to be registered as an instructor to apply at a driving licence testing centre to the CEO in respect of one or more classes of motor vehicles for which a learner’s or driving licence can be obtained and in terms of the prescribed conditions.

- Clause 27 inserts section 28D and E after section 28C to provide for the registration and grading of Driving schools, and to provide for any person desiring to operate a driving school to apply to the MEC in whose province such driving school will operate in a prescribed manner. The MEC shall register and grade the driving school after recommendation by the provincial inspectorate, and he or she shall give notice of such registration or grading in the Gazette, and furthermore MEC shall if a registered and graded driving school no longer complies with the requirements and conditions for such registration as prescribed, suspend or cancel the registration of such driving school or regrade the driving school in the prescribed manner. Further that the Minister shall appoint a person, an authority or a body as an inspectorate of driving schools, further that the powers and duties of the inspectorate in respect to inspection and control of standards, grading and operation of driving schools shall be prescribed.

- Clause 28 amends section 29 of the principal Act by providing that a document purporting to be a learner’s or a driving licence issued contrary to this Chapter, shall on the request of the inspectorate of driving licence testing centre or provincial inspectorate be declared void by the chief executive officer and upon his or her request, the holder of such document shall forthwith submit such document to the inspectorate of driving licence testing centre who shall destroy the document in the prescribed manner, further providing that the CEO may under the prescribed circumstances condone the issue of a document referred to in subsection (1) and declare such a document to be a valid licence from the date of issue of the document.

- Clause 29 amends section 30 of the principal Act by providing that no person shall use any other person's learner's or driving licence and present such licence as his or her own.

- Clause 30 amends section 31 of the principal Act by providing that no person who is the owner or operator, or is in charge, or control, of a motor vehicle shall employ or permit any other person to drive that vehicle on a public road unless that other person is licenced in accordance with this chapter to drive the vehicle and shall take the necessary steps to ensure that such person is licenced before such person drives such vehicle.

- Clause 31 amends section 32 of the principal Act by providing that no person shall drive a motor vehicle of a prescribed class on a public road except in accordance with the conditions of a professional driving permit issued to him or her in accordance with this Chapter and unless he or she keeps such permit with him or her in the vehicle: Provided that this subsection shall not apply to the holder of a learner's licence who drives such vehicle while he or she is accompanied by a person who is the holder of a professional driving permit in respect of that class of vehicle and who is in possession of such permit: Provided further that if the person accompanying such person is an examiner for driving licences, such examiner does not have to be the holder of a professional driving permit, providing further that any document issued by a competent authority in any prescribed territory, other than a driving licence approved by the Minister by notice in the Gazette, and serving in that territory a purpose similar to that of a professional driving permit shall, subject to the conditions thereof and to such conditions as may be prescribed, be deemed to be a professional driving permit for the purposes of subsection (1).

- Clause 32 amends section 33 of the principal Act by deleting the following words in subsection 1” or a duplicate thereof issued in terms of this Act if he or she is not in possession of the original”, further by deleting the words “or duplicate” in subsection 3.

- Clause 33 amends section 34 of the principal Act by adding subsection 4 after subsection 3 thus providing that where a court has issued an order in terms of subsection (1) (c) (i.e. declaring him or her to be disqualified from obtaining a licence, or a licence and permit, either indefinitely or for such period as the court may deem fit) the registrar or clerk of the court shall notify the CEO in the prescribed manner of such order and the CEO shall record such order in the register for driving licence.

- Clause 34 amends section 57 of the principal Act by providing that Passenger Rail Agency of South Africa, Transnet Limited, or a person in their employment who has either generally or specifically been authorised thereto, may in respect of any railway level crossing on any public road for which Passenger Rail Agency of South Africa or Transnet limited is responsible, cause or permit to be displayed, in the prescribed manner, any such road traffic signs as Passenger Rail Agency of South Africa or Transnet Limited or such person may deem expedient.
• Clause 35 amends section 58 of the principal Act by deleting the words "issued with the necessary authorization" in subsection 3 and by further adding the words "while engaged in civil protection as contemplated in regulations 47(1) and 55(2) of the Disaster Management Act, 2002 (Act No 57 of 2002)" thereby enabling the driver of a fire-fighting vehicle, fire fighting response vehicle, a rescue vehicle, an emergency medical response vehicle or an ambulance who drives such vehicle in the performance of his or her duties, a traffic officer or a person appointed in terms of the South African Police Service Act, 1995 (Act No.68 of 1995), who drives a vehicle in the carrying out of his or her duties or any person driving a vehicle while engaged in civil protection as contemplated in regulations 47(1) and 55(2) of the Disaster Management Act, 2002 (Act No 57 of 2002) to disregard the directions of a road traffic sign which is displayed in the prescribed manner.

• Clause 36 amends section 60 of the principal Act by providing that Notwithstanding the provisions of section 59, the driver of a fire-fighting vehicle, a fire-fighting response vehicle, a rescue vehicle, an emergency medical response vehicle or an ambulance who drives such vehicle in the carrying out of his or her duties, a traffic officer or a person appointed in terms of the South African Police Service Act, 1995 (Act No. 68 of 1995), who drives a vehicle in the carrying out of his or her duties or any person driving a vehicle while engaged in civil protection as contemplated in regulations 47(1) and 55(2) of the Disaster Management Act, 2002 (Act No 57 of 2002), may exceed the applicable general speed limit.

- Clause 37 amends section 62 of the principal Act by the insertion of section 62A which provides that in the event of a road incident, the emergency services shall immediately respond to the incident and render all the necessary services in compliance with the Incident Management System Policy as published by the Minister in the Government Gazette and any other applicable legislation.

5. FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS

None.

6. CONSTITUTIONAL IMPLICATIONS

None.

7. PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE
7.1 The State Law Advisers and the Department of Transport are of the opinion that this Bill must be dealt with in accordance with the procedure prescribed by section 76(1) or (2) of the Constitution since it falls within a functional area listed in Schedule 4 to the Constitution, namely “road traffic regulation”.

7.2 The State Law Advisers are of the opinion that it is not necessary to refer this Bill to the National House of Traditional Leaders in terms of section 18(1)(a) of the Traditional Leadership and Governance Framework Act, 2003 (Act No.41 of 2003), since it does not contain provisions pertaining to customary law or customs of traditional communities.
